ITEM 2 - Part 2B of Form ADV: Education Background and Business Experience

Amit M. Hampel, President & CEO

Amit founded Hampel Investment Advisors on August 6, 2018. A business management graduate with an accelerated M.B.A. from the Weatherhead School of Management of Case Western Reserve University, Amit began his career in 1992 with Chase Manhattan Bank (known today as JP Morgan Chase). As an Executive Director at Chase, he made markets in interest rate derivatives and options and eventually moved into the role of Head of Proprietary Trading reporting through the largest liquidity provider of foreign exchange in the world, where he concentrated on debt instruments, credit and global macro trading. From 2001 - 2007, Amit joined Deutsche Bank Advisors to launch a macro investing strategy group on behalf of the Equity Proprietary Trading Division, concentrating on ETFs, bonds, and single name equities, as well as futures and options. After a successful run at Deutsche Bank, Amit was recruited by Tudor Investment Corporation, one of the largest and most respected macro hedge funds, where he spent 2008 - 2013 managing and investing the firm's capital while helping formulate investment decisions for a multi-billion dollar hedge fund. Amit was responsible for investing capital globally in equities, bonds, commodities and foreign exchange. After his years at Tudor, he spent his time volunteering in charitable foundations, consulting and writing educational articles on predicting central bank actions and the effects on asset valuations.
